†Subject. Excise Commissioner no. 6926/457 of 12/16.5.03

Grant of one year's furlough to Agl Inspector Sreenivasa Ayer now working in the Excise Dept as Ganja Inspector

*Note. The Excise Comm recommends the grant of furlough for one year to Sreenivasa Ayer on the ground of his failing health. Caused by the death of his daughter. It is not stated when Sreenivasa Ayer is entitled to the leave applied for & when he wants it. A draft called for this information is submitted for approval

2. In place of Sreenivasa Ayer the Excise Comm wants either Krishnaswami Ayer or Ramachandra Rao, from the office of the Agl ~~Inspector~~ Chemist. The former

It is the head clerk permanently attached to Head Office & the latter is admittedly in charge of the Departmental papers. It does not therefore seem fair to ask the Agtl Chemist to spare the services of any of these two. Another Agtl Inspector named Manisami is working in the same office. If the Agtl Chemist consents to spare him, he may be withdrawn & sent to Excise Inspr. A draft making this enquiry is accordingly submitted for approval or orders

True
Inspr. I don't see why the Excise Commr should not write direct to the Agricultural chemist & ascertain who is available

Draft accordingly amended

Office note continued

The draft with the Secy's approval issued in No 6344 dated 25/5/13

No 7375/500 dt 30-5-66-02.

With reference to the Excise Comm. report that the Agrl Chemist has consulted to spare the services of the 3rd Agrl Inspector who is doing miscellaneous work provided a more competent hand could be sent in his stead, that the Inspector Specimens Dyer is entitled to the furlough of one year he has applied for & that the leave will be availed of as soon as it is sanctioned He also reports that a competent substitute will be appointed, during the absence of Specimens Dyer —.

Evidently nobody could be spared from the office of the Agrl Chemist.

Submitted for orders to Secty

Specimens Dyer being entitled to the furlough applied for by him the Excise Comm^r may be permitted to grant the leave in question.

As regards the appointment of a successor, the Excise Comr. desires now to have dropped the question of getting an Agricultural Inspector from the Agricultural Chemists Dept. He now says frankly that a competent substitute will be appointed to officiate during Srinivasa Rao's absence.

As Srinivasa Rao does not belong to the regular establishment of the Excise Dept but is drawn ~~separate~~ pro rata from the Agricultural Dept, the Excise Comr has had to address Govt on the subject.

Both the proposals may be sanctioned.

15/6/03

Srinivasaiyar was given to the Dept as an additional man as a variable. But he does not belong to the permanent establishment of the Dept. Why should a substitute be appointed at all? May a reply to this effect be given? Draft submitted.

Draft as ordered by the Secretary is put up. Memo the new system of the Provincial Contract of the manufacture & supply of Ganja was introduced. the Excise Comm^r prays to place at his disposal the services of an Agril Surveyor in order to supervise & give instructions regarding the cultivation of Ganja. as it prays some knowledge of practical training in Agriculture — the new system was introduced only with effect from the current Offl Year — Perhaps the services of a man who has had special training is prayed for some time more — ie. till the cultivators obtain sufficient experience.
